

SAVE THE DATES!

ECMTA Autumn Gathering November 8-10 2019, Leiston Abbey, Suffolk, UK

In cooperation with Pro Corda

The European Chamber Music Teachers Association's Autumn Gathering takes place on 8-10 November 2019 in Leiston Abbey, Suffolk (United Kingdom). Our host and partner is Pro Corda. www.procorda.com

The delegates are invited to arrive in the evening of 8th of November, the activities will start in the morning of 9th of November.

The ECMTA is glad to welcome Simon Rowland-Jones (Royal College of Music, London) and Daniel Tong (Royal Birmingham Conservatoire) as guest lecturers. Their topics are: Daniel Tong - "The Piano in Chamber Music and a New Festival and Competition in Birmingham", and Simon Rowland-Jones - "Peters Urtext of Haydn quartets".

Detailed program with the Members Forum and masterclasses will be available soon on the website www.ecmta.eu

Inscription form and practical information: see www.ecmta.eu

Deadline for inscriptions: 23 September 2019

email for registration: info@ecmta.eu

Leiston Abbey is a beautiful historic site dating from 1363, set in the Suffolk countryside only a short drive from the seaside towns of Aldeburgh and Southwold. The beautiful abbey ruins are incorporated into the buildings providing a stunning backdrop. Parts of the ruins were purchased in the 1970s by Pro Corda, the International Chamber Music Academy, a charity running music courses for children and adults.

